COHAN STOLE PART,

Actor Asks $50,000, Thereby Baring Difficulties With "A Prince There Was."

and Manager Popped Into Vacated Role.

Righto there are those who consider that George M. Cohan has certain claims to the title. But that veteran actor, author, manager, Robert Hillard, is not of his cell in the Fredericksburg jall one of them.

Robert sued George in the Supreme Court yesterday, alleging in effect that day morning, and twenty-four hours no playwright is great who does not live later haited in front of Folice Head-up to his contracts, and demanding quarters. New York. The automobile $50,000 as his share of the profits of "A was covered with mud and dust and so Prince There Was."

Men and women about town who can remember back as far as the middle of the theatrical season of 1918-1919 will recall that Hilliard played the original star's part in that drams and shortly hereafter withdrew and was replaced by Mr. Cohan in a changed version. Cohan's appearance in the piece being not only a surprise in itself but a sur-prise in another way also, since he had unced his intention of devoting himself wholly to writing, and had not been on the boards for a long while. Hilliard in the complaint which he filed yesterday tells in the stilted language of the w the following melancholy story: Having been cast for and rehearsed the part, he was not satisfied, and, call ded that he had been cast for a charnoter not fitted to an actor over whose head a certain proportion of years have passed, and that it would be well for prancing out before the footlights. He has, in order to bring himself with unspotted hands into court, refrained from playing any part in any other play or production. He declares that $50,000 of the money that the play has earned belongs to him. He believes that a jury will compel Mr. Cohan to split the gate with him to that extent.

The contract, he states, was entered

The contract, he states was entered into in December of the year that has 217 East 119th street, filed in order from just passed out of theatrical history, and that in consideration of it he trans-ferred to Cohan all his rights in "A

NIXON ASKS BETTER

Hurries Hedley on Improving SEES WAR IF ITALY West Side Train Operation.

Lewis, Nixon, new head of the Public Bervice Commission, had his first experience with Frank Hedley, vice-president and general manager of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, yester-

"I think a month is a good time to adfourn this matter for, and if I can reach decision in the meantime I will le regard to a suggestion made by Commis-sioner Nixon at a service hearing that every third train on the Jerome avenue branch of the East Side subway be op-erated north of the 167th street station, the present terminus, and be sent to Jugo-Slavs as the French hate the Go either Fordham road or Kingsbridge

"That won't do at all," replied Com-missioner Nixon. "I want a short cut in this matter if it is possible to make one. Why not give me an answer within day or two?"

Bide subway is that three additional express trains an hour be operated through price of their sacrifices in the war. The to Washington Heights. Mr. Hediey to Washington Heights, Mr. Hediey made all sorts of excuses. In regard to Jerome avenue, he said that the service now, where the passengers change at 167th street to the elevated trains, was better, as every third subway train would mean service only every nine min-utes beyond the present terminus. Also to run through subway trains would mean that many empty cars would have to be carried through when they were needed elsewhere. Inspectors of the Public Service Commission suggested more local trains on the East Side subway and better service through the Queensboro tube.

As the hearing was adjourned Com missioner Nixon said to Mr. Hedley: "Please don't forget that I want a final answer not later than a week from to-day as to the additional service on the West Side subway and the through to an automobile arcident at Fort Ogle-thorpe, Ga., in which his jaw had been the control of the control of the control of the motored back to New Haven.

ROMANCE IN DARK ENDS IN ARREST

The parents of Keech reside at 14 been dislocated.

"My wife form."

illocated.

"My wife doesn't love me any more. The lower reserved decision reserved.

DRIVES STOLEN CAR

HILLIARD ALLEGES Detective Brings Both Home From Raleigh, N. C.

A Brooklyn school teacher, Miss Lillian Duffy, $748 Bay Sixteenth street, emerged from her home a little while ago to find that her automobile, which she had left in front of the house, was gone. The police heard that the thief NEW PLAY WAS PLEDGED headed south with it and wired the number and description of the car to many cities and towns. Back came a But Piece Never Materialized of Raleigh, N. C., "We've got 'em."

Detective George J. Andrews went from New York to Raleigh. There he fastened a steel chain to a stanchion of the car and the other end to handcuffs which he snapped on the wrists of the prisoner, who was Harry Resin, 18, of From Shakespeare to Shaw, there have the classes and cults, which have debated the point as to who was the greatest playwright of them all. Up on the the car, they started for New York.

and was about ready to escape when the detective went to get him.

They left the Virginia town on Sun-

Andrews unfastened the chain and led

12 COPS TO CLEAR ROAD FOR MAYOR Orders Issued to Keep Bridge

Open for Hylan. Infidel fingers lifted ever so little yes-and before the cover snapped back into place one of the secrets sped away on nutterfly wings to be observed of all that men. When S-s-h-h-h! Never again will Mayor Hylan suffer himself to be interrupted in his morning and evening travels between Bushwick and City Hall. Twelve

The appearance of Mayor Frank

FIRE IN PUBLIC SCHOOL 83.

their class rooms to the street yesterday when the fire drill bell was sounded because some woodwork in the annex be-Prince There Was," but only on the came some woodwork in the annex beunderstanding that Cohan was to enjoy at work. An alarm of fire was turned in them after "Honest John O'Brien" with Hilliard as Honest John was knocking tem cold. men arrived.

A group of excited mothers gathered SERVICE ON SUBWAY

SERVICE ON SUBWAY

A group of excited mothers gathered in the street outside the schoolhouse, but were quickly reassured when they saw the last of the long line of children leave the building

If Italy does not get Flume it will Giuseppe Cippico, an Italian native of Dalmatia, who has just arrived here on a mission for the Italian Government. Count Cippico, who is the husband of Miss Rita Jolivet, motion picture actress, says that the Italian people hate the mans and that they are not willing to trust their future to the League of Nations until the league has proved strong enough to protect them from aggression from the east shore of the Adriatic.

The Italians, Count Cippico says, wi ay or two?"

The suggestion in regard to the West has a population of 50,000 loyal Italian subjects, and which they consider the price of their sacrifices in the war. The America. Count Cippico said, because the Italian people do not think President Wilson is generally supported by the American public in his proposal to give Flume to the Jugo-Slavs.

YALE STUDENTS IN DOUBLE ELOPEMENT

New York Youth One of Runaway Bridegrooms.

George Gilbert William Keech, twentytwo-year-old son of Col. Frank B. Keech of the brokerage firm of F. B. Keech & Co., 7 Wall street, surprised his parents yesterday by notifying them that he had become a party to a double elopement. Young Keech has been pursuing his studies at Yale, giving most of his attention. tion, however, to Miss Dorothy Dow Munsell, 19, of Chelsea, Conn. Some time ago he importuned his pa-rente to give their consent to a wedding, but they refused because of his imma-ture years, and last Saturday he decided Foung Wife Accused Husband of Attempted Assault.

Toung women who pick their future husbands indiscriminately from audiences in the semi-darkness of motion picture shows must expect to be disappointed occasionally, so Magistrate Grochi told 17-year-old Mrs. Mary Posluis and in the West Side court yesterday when she appeared as complainant after shaving had Kerilous Posluis, a discharged soldier, of 440 West Thirty-ninth street, arrested on a charge of clisorderly conduct. She said she had first met him at a movie house the night the armistice was signed and that they were married the next morning. He had attempted to strike her, she testified, at the home of a friend in West Forty-ninth street.

Posluis said the trouble was all due to an automobile preddent at Fort Ogle-thorpe, Ga., in which his jaw had been the said saw had been the analysis of the form of Keech reside at 14 the proposed first met him at a movie house of a first of the proposed first met him at a movie house the night the armistice was signed and that they have no refer to the follower had been to an automobile preddent at Fort Ogle-thorpe, Ga., in which his jaw had been the form of the follower had been to the proposed first met him at a movie house of the follower had been to an automobile preddent at Fort Ogle-thorpe, Ga, in which his jaw had been to the follower had been to the follower and the first came before Justice Kapper in the follogie of hims to of Albert L. Seasions ad been to him at a movie house of motion in the silentest first came before Justice Kapper in the film that hay longer."

With one of his college chims, John the matter first came before Justice Kapper in the film that hay longer."

With one of his college chims, John the matter first came before Justice Kapper in the film that any longer."

With one of his college chims, John the matter first came before Justice Kapper in the film that any longer."

With one of his college chims, John the matter first came before Justice Rapper in the film the suit lessuating the sui

AND SUSPECT BACK EXPRESS STRIKERS TO GO BACK TO-DAY

Vote to Return and Submit Demands to Division of Labor.

Men Cheer Hugh Frayne's Denunciation of Bolshevism

-Hylan Jeered.

Nine thousand employees of the American Raliroad Express Company who west on strike Wednesday voted with a roar yesterday to return to their jobs and to submit their grievances to jobs and to submit their grievances to Washington. They will resume work this morning clearing up a congestion that not only convenience but also has hampered the him."

loading of troopships in this port.

as an opportunity of sowing sedition among the men failed completely. The meeting at Madison Square Garden yes terday afternoon was a patriotic demon-stration and the men showed what they thought of the elements of disloyalty by erday the lid of the strongbox wherein cheering Frayne's denunciation of Bol-Police Headquarters keeps its secrets, shevism to the echo and again roaring and before the cover snapped back into their approval when he said that he was willing to take Uncle Sam's word for it that they would get a square deal When William Blackman of the United > present strike, and said. 'I know the to-day character of the professional strike breaker and I will not allow them in charles F. O'Brien. Director of Public Safety for Jersey City, urged the men to give no countenance to Bolshevism and received a howl of approval.

DOESN'T GET FIUME element, who wanted to hose our The older men, more experienced in such affairs, appeared to be solid in the support of their chairman, Benjamin Muldrew, and of Michael J. Cashal, vice-president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters of the Amerimean a future war between Italy and can Federation of Labor, who recome the Jugo-Slave, in the opinion of Count mended the acceptance of the plan. The motion to call the strike off was carrie

EXHIBITORS OF ARMY FILM ARE ARRESTED

Show "Fit to Win," Military Propaganda Play.

Alfred D. Harsten, manager of a theaser, a motion picture distributer, both of whom were arrested Sunday night after the exhibition of the film "Fit to Win," were arraigned yesterday in the Harlem court charged with a misdemeaner and put under ball to appear tomorrow in Special Sessions. Alfred J. Talley, Assistant District Attorney, who made the arrests, will prosecute on the charge that they are showing as indecent and obscene picture and are usintaining a disorderly house. He also will urge that the case be brought to immediate trial in Special Sessions.

The film, devised by Isaac Silverman.

The film, devised by Isaac Silverman County Prosecutor Harriman will ask of Altoona. Pa. as propaganda for the the grand jury at its regular meeting soldiers that would aid in combating to-day to find an indictment for mandisease, was originally passed by Will-lam A. Brady as chairman of the war cooperation committee of the motion picture industry, but with the understanding that it was to be used solely for display to soldiers abroad and in the cantonments in this country.

Since its backers have essayed to exhibit the film for commercial gain there has been much adverse opinion expressed as to its fitness to be thus exhibited, and a State and a Federal court have been called upon to enjoin License Commissioner, Glisbytes, from the control of the country of the control of the country of th Commissioner Gilchrist from revoking the licenses of houses displaying it. The matter first came before Justice Kapper matter first came before Justice Kapper in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn several weeks ago. This jurist, after seeing the film, characterized it as "so utterly disgusting" that he declined to their any further argument, dismissing the suit. Judge Mayer in the United the suit. Judge Mayer in the United the States District Court, however, ruled last one of the survivors of the Southern Passates District Court, however, ruled last

District Attorney Swann saw the film she was a passenger on board the Proin the Gotham Theatre Sunday night, said yesterday it was the most revolting and repulsive picture he had ever seen.

"My wife doesn't love me any more because my face has changed," was the way he explained the situation. "What can you expect, meeting neo-ple in the dark and marrying in such haster asked Magistrate Grochl. "Peo-ple marrying in baste must suffer. The pany to charge a save cent fare, prisoner is discharged."

Tent Fare Decision Reserved.

Judge Jomison reserved decision yet meet of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with a number of Engineers, attended a dinner and the Proteus sank with

SAYS A GIRL STOLE HER "MATINEE IDOL" Mrs. Speare Asks $25,000 for

Loss of Husband's Love.

A woman's unsuccessful fight to save her matinee idol husband from "the other woman" was related before Justice Giegerich and a jury in Supreme Court yesterday during the trial of the sult brought by Mrs. Annie H. Speare LATTER WILL ARBITRATE of 352 West 117th street against Miss Frances Goldstein, a music teacher, who lives in Forty-second atreet, Borough Park, Brooklyn, for alleged allenation of her husband's affections. Mrs.

Speare, who is a practising physician, seeks $25,000 damages.

Mrs. Speare produced a shoe box filled with love missives which she said Fred erick Harvey Spears had received from Miss Goldstein. Mrs. Speare says that Miss Goldstein first saw Speare on the the division of labor of the United I had to fight against Miss Goldstein to States Railroad Administration at retain my husband," Mrs. Speare said. "She was just a young, silly girl, kind who fall in love with matines idols, and when she learned that my husband was married she came to my house to

After the interview, Mrs. Speare said The men were moved to accept the note to Speare in which she said that all offer of arbitration submitted by the between them was over. However, Mrs. Government officials by a desire to do all in their power to help out in the were conveyed either "one million kisses" present emergency and by the advice of their own leaders supported by Hugh Frayse, general organizer of the American Federation of Labor, with which they have just become affiliated.

Indirect efforts made by certain Bolindrest astistance of the draft by pretending the strike blindress. Mrs. Spears will resume the blindress. shevist agitators to setze upon the strike blindness. Mrs. Speare will resume the

NORWEGIAN LINER BEATS RIVAL IN RACE

Bergensfjord Sighted Icebergs in Swift Passage.

The Norwegian-America liner Ber-gensfjord, which arrived last evening Sa-s-h-h-h. Never again will Mayor consumed the play and to make it would be well for the fall than the footing and evening travels between Bushwick and City Hall. They would be well for the submixed and City Hall. They would be well for the submixed and City Hall. They would be well for the submixed and City Hall. They would be well for the submixed and City Hall. They would be well for the submixed and city thall they are to be submixed and the body of the profits.

Mercupon Cohan retred to the silence of his library, after agreeing to come forth with a new play made of the old, and to be called "Honest John O'Brien." Cohan was to take an author's royalities and Hilliard the body of the profits.

Mr. Hilliard states that it was nontinated in the bond that he was not to appear in any other theatrical production until he assumed, or recamed, the leading role in "Honest John O'Brien." He sets forth that the astonishment of Broadway was as nothing to his when the practing out before the footlights. He had, no rider to bring himself with unsported hands into court, refrained from playing any part in any other play into any other play into any other play part in any other play and to make the well the play in the bridge at the time when the practing out before the footlights. He hads no rider to bring himself with unsported hands into court, refrained from playing any part in any other play into any other play into any other play into any other play into any other play and the profits and the playing any part in any other the footlights. He hads no rider to bring himself with unsported hands into court, refrained from playing any part in any other play on the playing any part in any other play and the playing any part in any other playing any part in

2 SERVICE FLIERS WRECKED.

Lieut, Lee Prettyman of the may air service and Lieut, Edward B. Quick an army aviator, arrived in town las the American Railroad Express Company, congratulated the strikers on the orderly nature of the walkout and told them that the company had no objection whatever to their membership in the American Federation of Labor. He told them that the strike was greatly inconveniencing the army officials, as it was preventing the delivery of large quantities of materials for shipment to they had rounded Point Lookout and were flying up Chesapeake Bay at 5:15 o'clock Sunday night when their motor caught fire and they were forced quantities of materials for shipment to this port. A continuation, he said, would necessitate a delay in the departure of these ships.

The only opposition to the arbitration proposal came from some of the younger element, who wanted to hold out until the first demantic indicates the set of the wind would take them all of their demantic indicates to the put out in his motor boat. Both men he put out in his motor boat. Both men were almost exhausted when he hauled them on board. They had previously been obliged t descend when ninety miles down the River because of engine

ASKS INDICTMENT IN NEWARK BABY CASE Prosecutor to Take Matter Before Grand Jury To-day.

Purther investigation yesterday by he police into the death of the three months old son of John Hedorn, whose body was found buried in the cellar of the house at 54 Howard street, Newark ire in East 125th street, and Isaac Siut-aer, a motion picture distributer, both the police that the Esdern child was own families. County Prosecutor Harriman will ask

ASKS $5,000 AN HOUR FOR PERIL IN BOAT Woman Survivor of Collision Sues Hines.

Five thousand dollars an hour for the three hours she passed in an open boat, at the mercy of wind and wave on the cific Railroad Company liner, the Pro-teus, which was sunk in collision with the Standard Oil Company tanker Cushing off Cape Hatteras, August 19, 1918. In her complaint, the plaintiff states bound from New Orleans to New When southwest of the Diamond said yesterday it was the most revolting and repulsive picture he had ever seen. "It is not in the slightest degree educational," he said, "and there is no justification from any point of view for showing that film in a public playhouse."

Shoai Lightship buoy, she alleges, the lookout on the Proteus sighted the Cushing shortly after 1 o'clock on the morning of August 19. She alleges the Proteus, which was displaying no navigation lights, held to its course, disregarding house." all signals the Cuching gave and finally attempted to cross the bows of the tanker. Mothers, wives and sweethearts of the men of Companies C and D. 302d Regiment of Engineers, attended a dinner held last night in the Central Opera casualties in less than an hour. The

JOHN WANAMAKER

COMBINED IN NEW YORK 1896 A. T. STEWART 1823

New York, May 13, 1919.

Good morning! The weather today will probably be fair.

The Dominant Note of This New Kind of Store has never wavered nor been lost. It touched a welcoming spirit in the hearts of the people, who promptly responded and approved it from the first weeks in March so many years ago.

To re-state our purpose then in plain, orderly manner.

First-To create an agrecable place to which people could come as often as they pleased to visit and enjoy without being made to feel that they should purchase something.

Second-To provide the largest, most complete assortment of trustworthy merchandise and by greatly augmented sales to offer the lower and lowest

Third-To grant the privilege of return of unwanted, uninjured purchases and instant return of cash paid without a question. (Somewhat changed under war influences during the past two Fourth-To set one price without deceit.

Fifth-To create a new note in advertising that would spell reliability of methods.

Sixth-To introduce new courtesies and hospitalities in shop-Seventh-To ask confidences of purchasers, with assurances of a like return on the part of the one who sells. The many years that have come and gone are recalled at this time with pleasure by ourselves and our friends, and our promise for the future is not only to preserve the dominating note but also to improve upon it in every way pos-[Signed]

John Mananater Citizen. May 13, 1919.

Avenue of silk underwear in Sale of White (Original)

Such lovely undies at little prices that customers are delighted with them. It is the most important sale of silk underclothes we have offered. The silks are good. They will wash satisfactorily. Plenty of plain and lacy styles. All pink or pink combined with blue.

$1 and $1.45; crepe de chine and satin bodices, plain and lace trimmed

$2; crepe de chine envelope chemises, three styles, with blue stitching, with embroidered flowers, with tucking and ribbon bow.

$2.95; crepe de chine envelope chemises in three styles, hem-stitched, or with imitation filet lace

$3.85; envelope chemises of checked tub satin or plain crepe de chine, some combined with Georgette and trimmed with lace.

$3.85; envelope chemises of checked tub satin or plain crepe de chine, some combined with Georgette and trimmed with lace.

$2.90; bloomers of tub satin with

$5; nightgowns in four styles, crepe de chine, plain or with Valenciennes lace, one style with short sleeves.

$6.75; nightgowns of crepe de chine with Valenciennes lace and bows or plain with Georgette crepe. Third Floor, Old Building.

Hand-made lingerie with real lace, $3.85 to $10.50

These new comers defy competition with foreign production because they are not only hand-made but they are trimmed with hand-made crochet and filet lace.

Nightgowns, $3.85 to $10.50 Envelope chemises, $3.85 to $7.50.

Silk petticoats, $3.95 Straight line or flounced styles

Engaging ones are slashed with inch-wide pleated quilling edging them and running up the slashed sides. Other straight ones have scalloped edges. Many have wide, medium or narrow pleated flounces, some of the flounces are put on in Van Dyke points. A dozen styles, all taffeta or with jersey tops and taffeta flounces. taffeta flounces.

comingly ruffled and tied with black ribbon at $5. Tailored white linen blouses have narrow knife-pleated ruffling at $5. Tai-Girls' bloomer dresses.

New, very special ones with pink and white or blue and white checked gingham skirts; plain white blouses trimmed with checks. Sizes 2 to 6 years.

Third Floor, Old Building.

JOHN WANAMAKER 1861

negligees are $9.75

sailor collars, made very simply

Sizes 2 to 4 years in attractive suits with blue or pink trousers and white dimity blouses. The blouses are hand-smocked and have cord neckties. Fresh, gay little things of the right kinds

Low at the throat, mostly with

The Pictures We Live With

Ruffled blouses in tucks, $2.

White Sale, $2 to $8.75 There is the pretty blouse of white voile with cascade

ruttle and three narrow

There is a charming one polka-dot Georgette crepe (with thread of cotton) which is be-lored white dimity sport shirts with half-inch pleated quilling are $3.95. Lovely voile blouses with lace collar and cuffs and lace-edged

Being an occasional bulletin concerning interesting prints, etchings, paintings, and tine reproductions of all kinds that appear in the Wanamaker Picture Galleries from time to time, and that are on exhibition and sale.

English Prints

An interesting collection of typically English sporting scenes, racing, hunting and cock-fighting. ese are amusing for the country house. From $3 to $35.

Eighth Gallery, New Building

in the daylight bedding factory at Wanamaker's

Sleepy Bedding

will be made expressly to order within twenty-four hours by the

Wanamaker Sleep Factory

Recently a steamship ordered five mattresses, box springs and various pillows to be custom made and delivered the same day; the order was received at 11:30 and the Wanamaker delivery van was on its way with them by 4.30.

Another day not long ago the father of a sick boy ordered a specially constructed mattress at noon and the mattress was delivered to his home the next evening.

Such cases are not exceptiors. They are in the natural order of things at the Wanamaker Sleep Factory, where bedding is made in a thoroughly wide awake style. If there is no special hurry, we do take a little longer time for delivery, however.

> 50 pound hair mattresses of highest grade hair,

Made of long tail hair from South American horses; selected especially for the Wanamaker Sleep Factory because of its length All black. Curled so that each little spiral adds elasticity and comfort to the mattress. Made with the firm imperial edge which is like a wall holding the mattress together. Covered with sateen

Sixth Gallery, New Building.

Double bed size, $85. Wanamaker Sleepy mattresses, custom made, start at $17.50 for single bed size Single bed size, $58.50.

Three-quarter bed size, $76.50.

ANTIQUES from France AU QUATRIEME

Five little rooms furnished in beautiful French antiques are opened today Au Quatrieme.

The assembling of this collection is the result of the past two months searching of Europe for French antiques by Au Quatrieme's collectors.

The tive rooms-a boudoir, salon, dining-room, library and a super-bath-room, are as enchantingly lovely as exquisite antique French turniture and bibelots, precious bits of brocade, rare paintings, and screens, arranged by a connoisseur of these things, can make them.

The Super Bath-Room

Many of the smart women in Europe are using their bathrooms as boudoirs. This is arranged by cleverly concealed bathtubs and basins, so that the bath is really lovely little charmingly artificia boudoir where plants grow, and rare prints and rare bibelots give the room delicate charm.

This boudoir bath-room 4 w Quatrience begins by having a peach-colored merbleized floor and a background of pale cream watls. nucleus of this room in a wonderful old Louis XV bath in the form of carved walnut chaise-longue which a copper tub in concealed.

Blue rubberized taffets curtains and pink underdraperies are held by two tiny antique cupids to form an amusing canopy over this chaise-longue. Another lovely thing in the room is a Louis XVI poudreuse of fruit wood, beautifully fitted with mirror and small compartments and containing the original perfume bottles and ointment-pots.

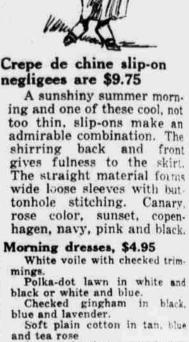

An old French corner cupboard painted blue and gold contains pitchers and basins, and old bottles of blue glass. Four exquisite Louis XVI armchairs with the original paint and upholstered in blue and gray toile de jouy repeat Painted hat-boxes, old tinsel pictures, and painted Louis XVI jardinieres holding growing plants add to the gay, charmingly artificial atmosphere of this very feminine little room.

The other French rooms contain many rare and lovely things. Small old tables of exceptional beauty and also some remarkable modern

A Louis XV drop-leaf diningtable in the salle s manger is particularly noteworthy.

Old candlesticks, a wonderful old water-fountain, Sevres jardinieres, tinsel pictures and French pastels, and Dutch cut-pr.per pic-tures are some of the interesting small decorative objects in these

Little boys' tub suits, $2.75

of materials.

Women's 8ilk dresses Specialized at $39.50

A decidedly different not is sounded in a trock of foulard. Over panels from shoulders to top of hem of loosel pleated Georgette crepe atter matching the color in the foulard. Dark brown-andwhite, black-and-white, navy blue-and-white. A trock with the new three-tier skirt is developed in a charming Japanese-patterned Georgette crepe will ground pointed in blue For the conservative wound who always desires a sample

-a model in an unusually attra tive foulard. The skirt is grandfully draped at the sides. In black-andwhite or navy blue-and-winter frock with surplice bodies.

One of the best chemise from it reproduced in soft satin Sizes 34 to 44 in all models Second floor, Old Building At Bridge of Progress

Panama parrots

make good talkers The Bird Shop reports the arrival or some Panama parrots; "young birds" says the bird chief-"the kind make good talkers." X A fine collection of Aufinches, including the Lady Gould finch, black in white head nuns, societ white and gray Java spemond sparrows. America parakeets, Central America

parakeets, cocketoor mac

Expert information on the Fourth floor, Old Building. Bird Store, Bown-stairs St New Building